

Talisha Valdez

PO Box 428

Clayton, NM 88415

talisfra@nmsu.edu

Career Summary

Major program emphasis: 4-H Youth Development; Agriculture Education; Family and Consumer Sciences and Community and Economic Development.

Experience

New Mexico State University Cooperative Extension Service

Union County (January 2018-current) Responsible for directing all NMSU CES programming, including Agriculture Education; 4-H Youth Development; Family and Consumer Sciences; Community/Economic Development.

Union County (May 2015 to December 2017)

Extension Program Assistant 4-H-Responsible for developing and implementing youth development and adult Education programming in areas of agriculture and leadership.

Clayton Municipal Schools

(August 2014 to May 2015)

Substitute teaching in Elementary, Junior High and High School.

Big Country Realty

(August 2013 to June 2014)

I managed all secretarial work in the office and helped manage the rental properties along with doing the taxes for the rental properties.

Subway

(June 2000 to June 2009)

I managed the night crew and worked the day crew in the summers throughout high school and when I was home on college breaks.

Education

New Mexico State University

College M.A., Agriculture & Extension Education; NMSU, Las Cruces, NM, December 2017

B.S., Animal Science, NMSU Las Cruces, NM, December 2010

High School Graduated, Clayton High School, Clayton NM, May 2005

Work Related Skills

Talisha Valdez

42 Springer Hwy

Clayton, NM 88415

talisfra@nmsu.edu

Communication Skills; Computer Skills; Leadership Skills

Professional Organizations/Associations

NM 4-H Agents Association; Union County Fair Board; Clayton Peewee League